PERSHING DESIGNATES U. S. TROOPS FOR EARLY CONVOY TO HOMELAND

A Total of More Than 83,000 Men Are Indicated

THREE DIVISIONS

Further Information as to Casualties Disclosed

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, November 30. — General Pershing has designated for early convoy to the United States a total of 3541 officers and 79,663 men, General March announced today. The units comprising these men will be made public later.

In the list appears as entire divisions the 30th, the 76th and the 87th. The other troops comprise artillery units and army corps troops.

CASUALTIES

General March gave out amended casualty reports from General Pershing giving the official total to November 26th as 262,723, exclusive of prisoners. The figures on prisoners were unintelligible in the cablegram.

General March said the total under this head probably would be practically the same as announced last Saturday.

General Pershing reported the following official casualties to November 26:

Killed in action, 128,363; died of wounds, 12,101; died of disease, 16,034; died of other causes, 1,980; missing in action, 14,290; prisoners, (unintelligible); wounded, 189,955, divided as follows: severely wounded, 54,751; degree undetermined, 43,168; slightly, 92,036.

The War Department expects to bring back home in the month of December between 150,000 and 170,000 men, General March said.

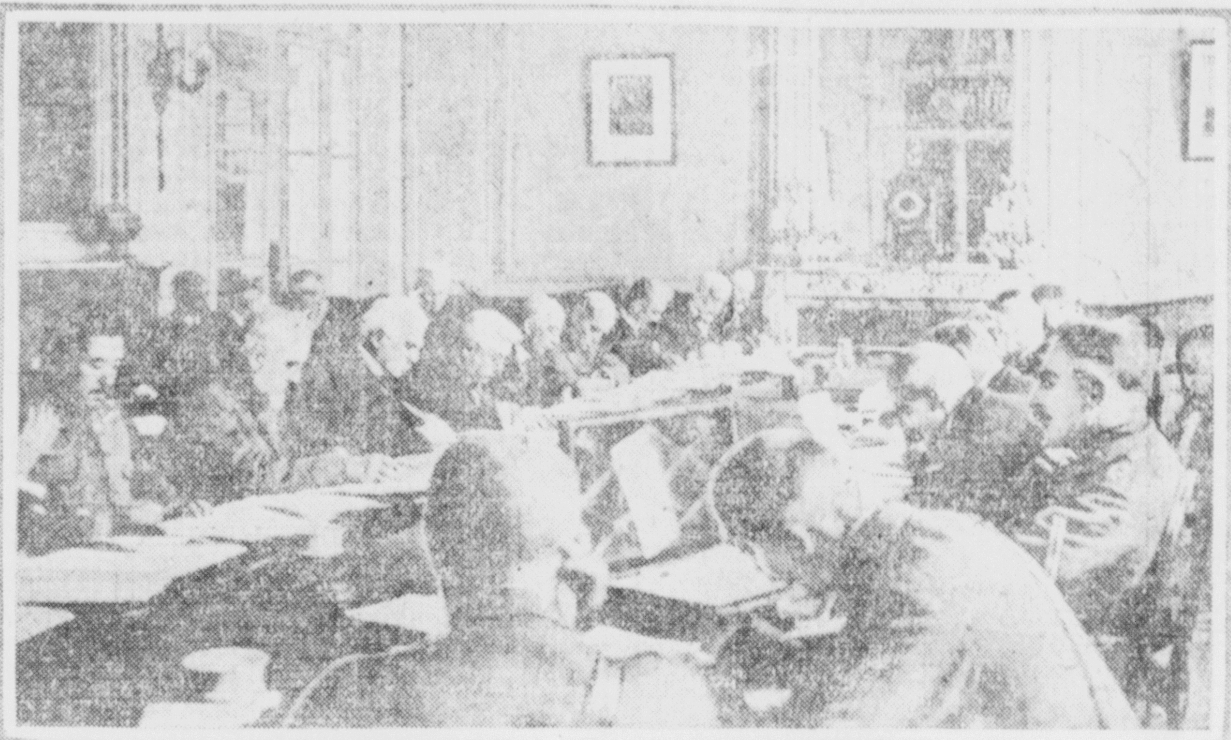

To accomplish this it will use in addition to army transports and converted cargo boats, enough old battleships and cruisers to furnish an additional carrying capacity for 25,000 men.

Shipping experts expect to transport 300,000 monthly when the demobilization is under full speed.

San Francisco Council Doesn't Approve of the Governors' Action Commuting Sentence

(By Associated Press)
San Francisco, November 30. — The San Francisco Labor Council after a long executive session, issued a statement today deploring the action of Gov. William D. Stephens in commuting to life imprisonment the sentence of Thomas J. Mooney, condemned to death for murder in connection with the preparedness day bomb explosion when ten persons were killed here in July, 1916. The labor council's statement declared the governor had "straddled the issue" and Mooney should have been granted a full pardon or else allowed to be hanged.

PARTICIPATION IN CONFERENCE

(By Associated Press)
Washington, November 30. — Preparations for the participation of the United States in the peace conference practically were completed today with the naming of the nation's representatives. America's position on the great questions to be settled at the conference will be set forth by the following:

President Wilson, Robert Lansing, secretary of State, and Henry White, former Ambassador to France and Italy.

Officials indicated today that the White House announcement purposely left in doubt the exact status of the representatives because the President had not been fully informed as to the exact formalities of procedure in organizing the conference.

Secretary Lansing was chosen to head the American delegation but the question of whether the President himself during his stay in France will be considered a part of the delegation proper may depend upon the course adopted by the head of the great associated governments. Since in Mr. Wilson as President of the United States lies all the power that will be exercised on the part of America in the conference and the delegates must act as a unit in accordance with his decisions, the only question involved so far as he is concerned is one of form.

Composition of the military personnel to accompany General Bliss with the peace delegation was announced by General March as follows:

"Major General Francis J. Kernan, Brigadier General Marlborough Churchill, chief of the military intelligence bureau, and Colonels Ralph H. Vandeman, Jordan, Ayers, Helms, Ferling, Fling and Captains Auchez, loss and Childs.

Brigadier Generals William Hart, former aid to President Wilson, will be in command of the military aides and messengers at the conference. There will also be attached to General Bliss's staff a number of army officers who are specialists in law, finance, ethnology, furnishing what General March described as a "well rounded military staff."

WILHELM SIGNS HIS ABDICATION

Admiral Von Hintze Journeyed to Holland to Get Ex-Kaiser's Signature

(By Associated Press)
Washington, November 30. — State Department advices from The Hague today reported that Admiral Von Hintze, former head of the German navy, was in Holland to obtain from the former Kaiser a formal proclamation of abdication.

KAISER SIGNS

London, November 30. — Former Emperor William signed his abdication at Amerongen, Holland, yesterday, according to a dispatch to the Wolf Bureau at Berlin, transmitted by the Exchange Telegraph correspondent at Copenhagen.

The abdication decree, according to the message, expresses the hope that "the new regent" would be able to protect the German people against anarchy, starvation and foreign supremacy. The use of the word "regent" in the message is commented upon here as possibly significant.

ON MONDAY

Will Address Legislators on First Instead of Second Day as Was Custom

(By Associated Press)
Washington, D. C., November 30. — President Wilson will address the new session of Congress Monday afternoon instead of following the usual custom of delivering the address on the second day of the session.

Senate and House leaders were asked today to arrange for a joint session at one o'clock Monday so as to hasten the President's departure for Europe to attend the peace conference.

It has been stated he would sail from New York the day after the address was delivered.

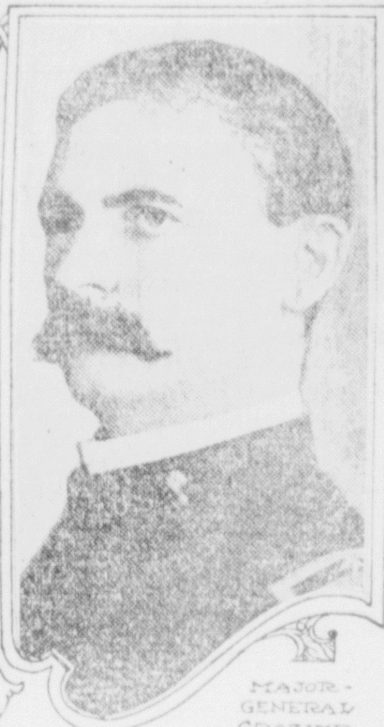

ANTOFAGASTA DEMONSTRATION GROWS SERIOUS

(By Associated Press)
Buenos Aires, November 30. — The demonstrations at Antofagasta have assumed such a serious character that the Chilean government has sent the cruiser Captain Prat, to that port with troops, according to press dispatches received here from Santiago. MAJOR-GENERAL CROZIER

MAJOR-GENERAL CROZIER

MUSTER OUT FOR 649,000 U. S. TROOPS

To Date 46,378 Men Have Been Mustered Out of Camp

(By Associated Press)
Washington, November 30. — The total number of troops already designated for early discharge in the United States was given as 649,000. These include depot and development battalions, 20,000; divisional troops, 10,000; railway troops, 28,000; U. S. Guards, 20,000; tank corps, 7,000; chemical warfare troops, 7,000; central officers training schools, 20,000 and student army training corps, 100,000.

To date 46,378 men have been mustered out of the camps in this country. The schedule under which the Department is working calls for the release of an average of 1,000 men per camp per day and General March said that every effort would be made to maintain the average.

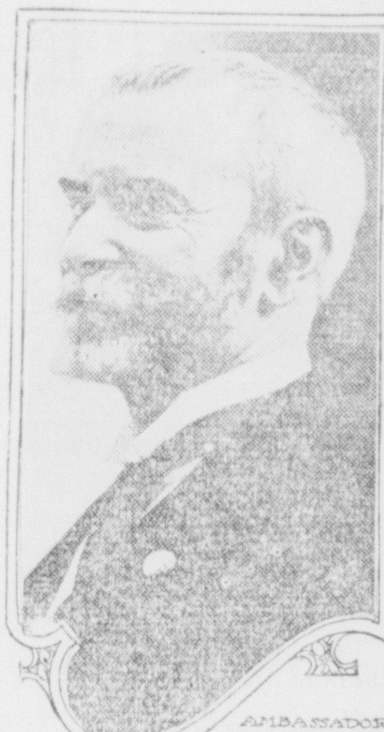

Revised army estimates for the coming year resulted in cutting the $19,000,000,000 of army appropriations to less than $3,000,000,000, General March announced.

General March corrected an erroneous impression that the 27th and 30th divisions reported as withdrawn from the British line had been designated for early return to the United States. These two divisions, he explained, have been returned to Pershing's command and have not yet been assigned for transportation home.

BEER BREWING STOPS TONIGHT AS WAR MEASURE

(By Associated Press)
Washington, November 30. — Brewing of beer and other malt beverages will stop at midnight tonight throughout the United States. The special presidential committee which recommended the presidential proclamation prohibiting brewing as a war conservation measure, decided today to make no recommendation to President Wilson on suggestions that the proclamation should be rescinded in view of the armistice.

LOCAL SOLDIERS TAKE HUN GUNS

Writing of the activities of Ohio boys in the great war, C. C. Lyon of the Columbus Citizen, gives the following interesting story of the heroic deeds of soldiers from this city and Lancaster:

"Boys from Washington C. H. and Lancaster got into a stiff fight with a German outfit in a dense woods northwest of Verdun, and they didn't make much progress against the enemy machine gun nests until they rushed up their own trench mortars. Then they poured steel into the boches so fast that the latter deserted their machine guns and started back toward Germany."

"The Ohio boys, finding the German machine guns lighter to carry than their own mortars, turned them on the retreating foe."

"When the fight was over I'm told every German who had opposed them was accounted for—either captured, killed or wounded."

ANOTHER FAYETTE BOY GIVES LIFE

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Sommers, of New Martinsburg, Friday evening received a telegram from the war department announcing the death of their son, Howard A. Sommers, which occurred on November 9th as a result of wounds sustained in action September 26th.

The brave young man had a host of friends in the New Martinsburg community, and news of his death brings deep sadness not only to his immediate family but to all who knew him. Fayette county's death toll in the war has been very heavy, but every citizen is justly proud of the brave young men who gave their lives in the cause for which their country was fighting.

TIME TO RENEW DOG LICENSES

During the month of December is the time for all owners of dogs to renew their yearly license, or rather obtain a new license, as required by law, the cost being $1 for each male and $2 for each female canine in the city and county.

Application for the license must be made at the County Auditor's office, where a license will be issued and a 1919 tag given. All owners of dogs must obtain a license before January 1, 1919.

During the present year 2606 dogs were licensed in Fayette county, with the result that an accurate record of virtually all dog owners in the county is now on file, and if dog owners do not pay the license fee, the fact will be known and penalties provided by law will be invoked.

Failure of a owner of a dog to make application for registration by the required time is punishable by fine of not more than $25, while for wearing a fictitious number tag, a fine of not more than $100 is provided.

Application to the County Auditor's office may be made by mail, if the owner of the canine cannot apply in person, and the full amount of the registration fee, together with sufficient postage for return of the license, must accompany the application.

REMARKABLE PLAY MADE BY LOCAL BOY

A rare play in football, and one requiring great skill and no little daring was that made by Quarterback Craig at the Thanksgiving day game in this city, and which inadvertently was overlooked by those giving information on the game.

It was in the third period that Quarterback Craig caught the ball from Wilmington's kick-off and, aided by good interference at first, eluded most of the Wilmington tackle and went nearly 85 yards for a touchdown, making more than half of the distance without interference.

The Washington team played only three games this season and won two of the three by very decisive scores. The members of the team were photographed Friday, before the team was formally disbanded.

Mrs. H. M. Patton, Waverly, Mo., writes: "I fed two boxes of 'More Eggs' to my hens and broke the egg record. I got 1500 eggs from 160 hens in exactly 21 days." You can do as well. MAIL MOTOR TRUCK CHANGES ROUT TO REACH GREENFIELD

The motor mail truck running between Columbus and Hillsboro, meeting a truck from Cincinnati at that point, has been changed from a route direct to Leesburg from this city, to Greenfield by way of Good Hope, so that those two points will be included in the route from now on and mail can be sent and received accordingly. The change is a pleasing one to local citizens.

Regarding the change and how it was brought about, the Greenfield Republican says: "The motor mail and parcel post service between Columbus and Cin-

DODGE BROTHERS BUSINESS CAR

Dodge Brothers designed this Business Car early in the war with a definite purpose.

They realized that individuals and corporations would be compelled to increase their facilities for truck transportation.

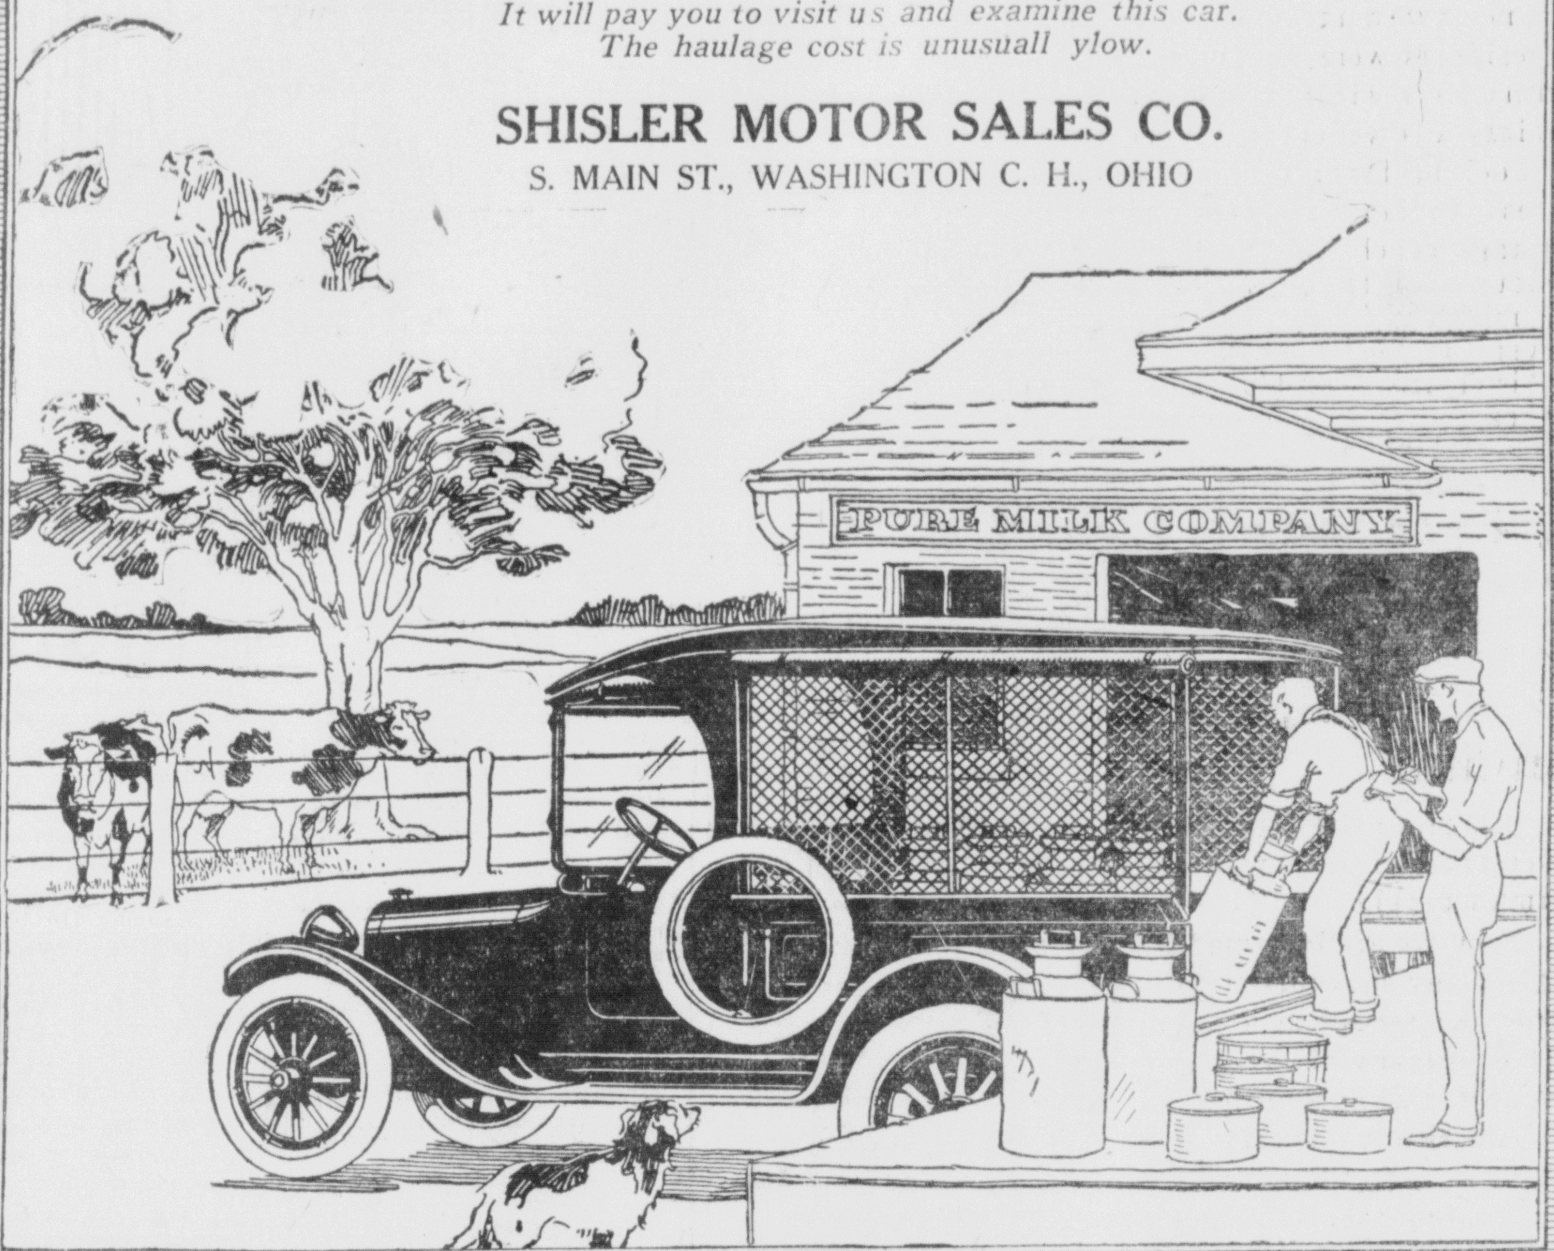

The great need, therefore, was bound to be a business car to which business interests could quickly turn with complete confidence.

Dodge Brothers aimed to attach to their Business Car the same elements of certainty which have been taken for granted on their passenger models. They sought primarily, sure, steady, consistent performance, freedom from repair, and a very low haulage cost. Dodge Brothers have no hesitation in saying to the business men of America that they can buy this Business Car with absolute assurance of the outcome. It will prove a long-time, steady, paying investment to any individual or corporation whose business requires swift and safe transportation.

It will pay you to visit us and examine this car. The haulage cost is unusually low.

Mail by Airplane

It seems now to be generally understood, although, perhaps, not yet officially announced that hundreds of the big army airplanes will be used in the mail service.

It's quite a long span from the days of the pony express of the early days in the wild west to the airplane service of today. Where, out on those great stretches in the west, northwest and southwest, in the days of Buffalo Bill, the residents were fortunate to get letters every few months, they will now get mail daily and with the same certainty as dwellers in our most populous centers.

Looking forward from the romantic days of the pony express, Indian massacres and bandits on down through the stage coach time with its attendant menaces to the precious mail, to the railroad and beyond to the airplane was much too far for the early settlers to see. The vision of even the most far-sighted optimist couldn't see beyond the "iron horse" and few that far, but now looking back how easily it seems, how natural, how as a matter of course this wonderful progress of men.

The larger, stronger planes will be used in the sections of great distance and for the more thickly populated regions of the near west and perhaps the east smaller and lighter planes will be used—Fords if you please—that can be landed on a dime, turn 'round on a postage stamp, take water at the town pump, obtain a supply of gasoline at the local garage and be off again on their way.

Their Nerve

Scarcely a day passes without furnishing the world added proof of the monstrous effrontery and conceit of the German people.

Now we are informed by trustworthy correspondents in Germany that the lately employed army officers of the former Kaiser are as arrogant and insolently insulting as ever, and many of them are already planning to settle in the United States as soon as "America cools off a little."

America wants none of the present generation of self-fish louts who have been parading as world conquerors and training themselves as brigands for years.

The announced intention of these good-for-nothing professional disturbers is notice that this nation must close up the gateways at the immigration ports so as to check the tide of "undesirables" who will now seek to make America their future field of operation.

The Prussian brigands would come here either to destroy our institutions or to make them conform to their erroneous ideals. For a time—a long time—our ports must be closed to all such people. Every new comer at our ports should be scrutinized more carefully now than even in war times.

The Germans are still unchanged, they are as dangerous and as determined as ever. They are sorry, perhaps, that they lost the war, but not at all sorry for the wrongs they have committed. They do not desire to do better, but they do desire an opportunity to try again.

The present generation will continue to live out its allotted span of years plotting the destruction of humanity or its enslavement to the military power.

We want none of them here in this country.

Food Conservation

The duty of the American people regarding economy in the use of foodstuffs is not wholly done yet.

True the armistice ending hostilities has been signed and contains such terms as make a renewal of the war, by Germany, almost wholly impossible and practically assures the execution of the final treaty of peace. It is true also that the tremendous food conservation bureaus are being demobilized as rapidly as possible and the intricate and far-reaching food conservation organizations are being dismantled as rapidly in accordance with the general demobilization plans, but we must not waste food.

The rigid restrictions of war time are to be measurably lessened, we are approaching near now to the time when the total denials will be abolished entirely and when the limit on the amount of wheat, sugar and other necessities will be measurably increased or removed.

With the bright future facing America there are still many anxious millions who look to us for food and whom America only can save from starvation. These millions in neutral countries and countries vassals of Germany are in their present deplorable plight through no fault of their own and humane impulses demand that we at least do away with waste that they may be fed.

POEM FOR TODAY

THE FOUR WINDS
 O blow, ye Winds of Heaven!
 The four winds roar and sing
 The ocean ways are clean again.
 Free of the "Unclean Thing."

Free of murder in the dark,
 O cowardice and shame,
 Of children's blood upon the waves,
 Of deeds without a name.

Free for Yankee sailors,
 Free for British tars,
 Free for the gallant ships of France,
 Clean for God's sun and stars!

Down from the "Banks" of "Georges"
 Comes the wild wind of the north,
 Now all you sailors ship your nets,
 Men of the sea go forth.

Over the wide Atlantic
 Blows the keen wind of the east;
 Set sail, raise steam, fill up your holds,
 We have seen the end of the Beast

We are clean, cry the winds of Seattle;
 O you great six-masters fly,
 Loaded with grain, a golden freight,
 Even as was the Frye.

And the tender breeze southeast,
 southwest,
 O fast, fast flies the foam,
 And unseen angels sail with the ships
 That are bringing the boys back home.

YOUR FRIEND THE ENEMY

A very great man once said: "Show me a man without enemies and I will show you a man without character. Unfortunately, this seems to be true. But don't think the way to success is in making enemies, for you are bound to hit an awful hard bump if you do. You are captain of yourself (or you should be). Be on the level always in all things and the ones that don't like that will probably be your enemies. What of it? They never would have been good friends. A real friend is a wonderful thing and mighty rare. Be on the square with yourself and those around you and those that don't like that are not much account anyway."

News of Interest to Women

The Browning Club met in regular session this week at the club rooms with Mrs. Haidee Coffman, chairman of the Art Department, in charge. Three splendid papers were given: one by Miss Ella Hess on "The Story of the Fireplace," Miss Hess giving the history of the fireplace, from primitive days to the present time, and the influence it has had on the mind and character of men. Mrs. Maggie Hopkins' paper on "Beautiful Gardens of America" was most interesting. Mrs. Hopkins said: "God has implanted in the human heart an innate desire of the beautiful, and has satisfied the same to a marvelous degree, in his wonderful creations. It is a longing for the realization of the same that has stirred and stimulated the efforts of man to cultivate the beautiful, through all the ages of the world's history, and the gardens of our own and other countries are one of the results. The gardens of colonial days are fraught with interest bringing to American life much of the beauty and imprint of the countries from which the colonies had come, and the progress and development through the years of our national life, finds America today the proud possessor of many gardens famous for their beauty."

Mrs. Pope Gregg read an intensely interesting paper on George Gray Barnard's Statue of Lincoln, constructed at the request of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. P. Taft for the city of Cincinnati and unveiled at the Union Theological Seminary in New York City, December, 1916. It was highly praised by Theodore Roosevelt, by Frederick Mac Monnies, Thomas Hastings, Richard Fletcher and others. The face was modeled after a life mask taken shortly before the great man's election and the form was taken from a Louisville Ky. man who was born fifteen miles from Lincoln's birthplace and who confessed to have been splitting rails all his life.

The statue was also subjected to severe criticism, Robert P. Lincoln being very bitter in his comments. However, it cannot be denied that it is a masterpiece and the sculptor has wrought more wonderfully than ever in investing the statue with the idealism and the faith and strength of this great friend of humanity.

The sculptor has interpreted the spirit of the war of the rebellion, that wonderful school room of our nation at education.

LARGE AUDIENCE HEARS REV. ROSS TELL OF THE WAR

Insight Into Hardships Of Mighty Struggle Given By Former Pastor of Grace M. E. Church.

Church Is Packed By Audience Eager To Hear War Story.

Every seat in Grace M. E. Church was occupied and a number of persons were turned away, Friday night to hear Rev. Frederick E. Ross, former pastor of the church and who recently returned from France after more than six months in the Y. M. C. A. service on some of the "most important sectors of the battle front." All were greatly pleased with the glimpses given into the actual conditions in the battlezone, and of his personal experiences, only a very small part of which he could relate because of lack of time in one evening.

The large audience was in itself a tribute to the popularity of the former pastor and his appearance before the audience was the occasion for an outburst of applause. He was presented by Rev. Arthur P. Cherrington, and for more than two hours related incidents of the war zone which were of great interest and held the close attention of the big audience. Following his address he placed at the disposal of the audience for examination a large number of interesting relics of the battlezone, and these were carefully inspected by scores of persons.

Rev. Ross appeared in his service uniform, and somewhat thinner than he was, when he first returned, weeks of hard work speaking in dozens of cities and at the same time keeping up his pastoral duties at the Third Avenue Church, Columbus proving strenuous and telling on his strength.

Rev. Ross declared that the sword has been snatched from the blood-thirsty Hohenzollerns for all time to come, and that the world will never rest in peace until the former Kaiser and others responsible for the terrible tragedy of the war, are brought to trial and punished, and that no punishment can be too severe for them because their crime has been the greatest of all time.

The magnitude of the crime of the former Kaiser and his supporters can be gleaned in a remote way, declared Rev. Ross, when it is known that for miles and miles over some of the battlefields one can not walk without stirring human bones at every step, and the trail of destruction left behind by the Hun is beyond all words to describe.

"The war has demonstrated beyond the shadow of a doubt that the spirit of '76 is just as strong today as it was in those stirring days," he declared.

Rev. Ross told of his labors in the Toul sector, the St. Mihiel sector and finally as a pioneer Y. M. C. A. worker among the American troops in Flanders in that small part of Belgium where the Hun had not set foot; how he visited the front line trenches carrying cheer to the brave men who faced death every moment; how he worked under shell fire for week after week, with big shells falling nearby; his visits to no-man's land and trips on trucks where death lurked on every side; visits to dug-outs deep beneath the surface and within hearing of the Hun's front lines; his marches with troops when the rain was pouring, thunder rolling, lightning flashing and shells and machine gun bullets falling about them and how the Y. M. C. A. brought new life to the boys at the front at all hours of the day and night.

Lieut. Douglass Campbell, American ace, was a personal friend while he was in the Toul sector.

The composure of the English soldiers during the critical days of the great drive in March and April, and the unshakable spirit and faith of the English, French and American was lauded. His story of the gassed soldiers, the mangled heroes who never uttered a sound while undergoing severe surgical attention as result of great wounds, and the general cheerfulness that characterized the soldiers at the front, made a deep impression upon the large audience.

While in Flanders Rev. Ross was stationed a short distance from Mt. Kemmel, and after leaving that station on his way to headquarters to make final report, he stopped at Arras and saw the British, with their artillery planted wheel to wheel, smash the Hindenburg line; saw 7,000 German prisoners coming back from the front; visited the hospitals where the odor of blood from the wounded was sickening; saw the German wounded and heard them scream while on the operating table.

while the Allied soldiers made no sound. He saw the multitude of sturdy British moving forward day and night in smashing through the Hindenburg line, and described the great fortifications, masses of barbed wire, concrete emplacements, tunnels, ditches, shelters and series of fortified works generally that composed the Hindenburg line.

In conclusion Rev. Ross praised England for the noble manner in which she shouldered the bulk of the war, and of her sacrifices in men, material and fortune, declaring that America should ever be grateful for the great service England has rendered humanity and that the old spirit of distrust that some Americans have held against Great Britain should forever be cast aside, and that American should remember that it was Prussianism that inflicted the Revolutionary war upon America in 1776 and that the bulk of the soldiers fighting the colonists at that time were Germans.

A glowing tribute was paid to France, Rev. Ross declaring that the spirit of France was such that it could never be conquered or broken or in any way impaired.

"No man who dares believe in the church should dare to refuse to aid Foreign missions after the great part the black, brown and yellow men of the world have played in saving the world from paganism at the hands of the Huns," said Rev. Ross in one of his final statements.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society, under whose auspices Rev. Ross appeared, realized a snug sum from the door receipts, and virtually all of this will be devoted to aid the stricken orphans of France and Belgium.

(By Associated Press) Paris, November 30.—King Victor Emmanuel of Italy, will visit Paris in December, according to an announcement made here today.

MAJOR RELL ALLEN PROVOST MARSHAL

Major Rell G. Allen, formerly of the 166th member of the Rainbow Division, has been designated Provost Marshal and has charge of the discipline in a district of 700 square miles, with headquarters at St. Aignan, Noyers, France.

Major Allen has been in charge of the work for sometime, rising from Assistant Provost Marshal to Chief Provost Marshal in the district in a comparatively short time because of his marked executive ability in handling the affairs of his office.

He has upward of 1,000 men working under him, and his duties are much the same as those of a chief of police with 1,000 officers under him, and his word is law in the 700 square miles of his district.

The appointment is one rarely accorded a Major, but usually held by a Colonel or Brigadier General.

The Provost is a very responsible one and the appointment is a considerable honor and carries with it the recognition of Major Allen's marked ability to organize and conduct such a large and efficient organization.

Because of his work as Provost Marshal he will probably be one of the last officers to leave France, unless he is relieved.

KING'S HERALDS

The meeting of King's Heralds will be held at Grace church on Monday, December 2. All boys and girls from 6 to 14 are invited. Everybody bring their mite boxes.

THE MEN IN CLASS A1

A sound, healthy man is never a back number. A man can be as vigorous and able at seventy as at twenty. Condition, not years, puts you in the discard. A system weakened by overwork and careless living brings old age prematurely. The bodily functions are impaired and unpleasant symptoms appear. The weak spot is generally the kidneys. Keep them clean and in proper working condition and you will generally find yourself in Class A1. Take GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules periodically and your system will always be in working order. Your spirits will be enlivened, your muscles supple, your mind active and your body capable of hard work. Don't wait until you have been rejected. Commence to be a first-class man now. Go to your druggist at once. Get a trial box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. They are made of the pure, original, imported Haarlem Oil—the kind your great-grandfather used. Two capsules each day will keep you toned up and feeling fine. Money refunded if they do not help you. Remember to ask for the imported GOLD MEDAL Brand, in three sizes, sealed packages. Adv.
